C Murphy responded that yes replacement readings would be issued for incorrect interval readings with a new market message issuing. In this case the DUoS will automatically be corrected as a result.

D McBride raised a customer query based on smart meters continuing to take readings during a power outage.

C Murphy advised that this likely part of the power outage non zero estimates review currently ongoing, however if he wanted to send on MPRN examples we could check.

A O'Lachtnain asked if when work is complete should suppliers expect the 343 Market Message to reconcile with the 345 Market Message correctly?

C Murphy advised that a response on this would need to be given at a later date as this is still under review.

A O'Lachtnain stated the importance of reconciling the bill issued with what is displayed on the meter.

C Murphy agreed.

C Murphy highlighted the ability for suppliers to have visibility of the next read date on extranet and also view read cycle within the XML file in relation to the Special Read Request topic.
